Remedy aims to emphasize the importance of remembering the past, commemorating the totalitarian regime victims and appreciating the present. The diverse EU communities involved share their history of totalitarian regimes and resistance in the fight for their rights. The project will involve EU citizens of older and younger generation that will enrich each other's knowledge of past events and eventually lead to reconciliation.

The result of this project will be a new relation built on understanding, unity and forgiveness, moving to the brighter future of diversity and shared values.

The project will be structured in (following) four main international events:

1. Geraci Siculo, Italy, 'Remembrance' (November 2016)
2. Krakow, Poland, 'Reflection' (January 2017)
3. Tartu, Estonia 'Reconciliation' (September 2017)
